CODE OF CONDUCT FOR BEHAVIOUR AT THE CENTRE:

The following code is not set to provide a detailed description of behaviour expectations, but rather the broad principles of acceptable behaviour in netball at the Trust Waikato Hamilton City Netball Centre.

Incompliance and breaches of this code may lead to disciplinary action (including trespass notices issued and player suspension) by: the offending team or individuals' school or TWHCNC under its complaint and judiciary procedure.

Player Code of Behaviour

- Play with honesty and integrity.
- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of all participants, regardless of their ability, cultural background or religion.
- Play with a healthy determination; hard but fair.
- Play to strive for excellence and to the rules of the game.

- Be committed to your team. Attend all practices and games.
- Refrain from arguing with the officials. Control your temper at all times.
- Work equally hard for yourself and your team.
- Portray good sportsmanship. Applaud all good play whether by your team or your opponent.
- Remember the goals of the game are to have fun, participate, improve your skills and to win fairly.
- Use acceptable and appropriate language.
- Thank the opposition and match officials after each game.

Coach Code of Behaviour

- Positively reinforce the actions of players
- Lead by example.
- Be honest with yourself, your management and with players.
- Create an enjoyable environment in which to play the game.
- Develop and grow a team respect for officials.
- Give all players the opportunity to participate in the game.
- Insist on fair play and discipline.
- Be reasonable on the demand of the players' time, energy and enthusiasm.
- Encourage positive sportsmanship.
- Use acceptable and appropriate language.

Spectator/Parent/Supporters Code of Behaviour

- Applaud the performance of both teams.
- Be positive with the officials and coaches.
- Acknowledge the officials and their efforts. Show appreciation to the coaches and officials.
- Let the players play their own game, not yours.
- Praise efforts not results.
- Be a positive role model for the players; display self-control on the side-line.
- Use acceptable and appropriate language.
- Remember young people play netball for their own satisfaction, not yours.

Officials Code of Behaviour

- Control the game in a fair and positive manner.
- Be consistent and objective in your rulings.
- Modify your approach to suit the level of skill each player possesses.
- Help players learn the rules by explaining decisions where appropriate.
- Do what you can to ensure everyone enjoys the game.

- Encourage fair play and do not tolerate foul play of any kind.
- Be a positive role model.
- Use acceptable and appropriate language.
